5 Fun Facts You Didn't Know About Me:

1. My Chihuahua Sparrow is seldom more than five feet from my person. If you ever Zoom or Skype with me, chances are he's in my lap asleep.

2. I married my high school sweetheart.

3. I accidentally minored in history. I used all my electives for history classes because they sounded (and were!) so interesting. I meant to minor in English. English isn't fun.

4. I love zoos. If I could take any vacation, I would cross the country stopping at every zoo I could along the way.

5. All my athletic characters play baseball, because it's the only sport I understand. I grew to love the sport while living in St. Louis in the mid-80s when the St. Louis Cardinals went to the world series twice. (They lost both times.)
